BESCHRIJVING VAN ACTIVITEIT

FULL DAY CRAB ISLAND FISHING VILLAGE

TICKET: Depart Kuala Lumpur for an hour drive to Port Klang, before taking a 30-minute ferry ride to Crab Island (Pulau Ketam). The mangrove swamps of nearby island and “floating houses” come to view as the ferry approaches the island. The island is the best opportunity to see the rustic lifestyle of fishermen where even the roads are built on stilts. Crab Island, as the name suggests, is renowned for fresh crabs and other seafood. Afternoon is free and easy time for you to explore the small village, you may also rent a bicycle to get around (rental not included).

On the way back to the city, photo stop at the below places:

- Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Mosque - it is Selangor's State Mosque. Commonly referred to as the 'Blue Mosque', it is said to have the world's tallest minarets.
- Thean Hou Temple - set on a hill with commanding views over Kuala Lumpur, this is a landmark six-tiered Chinese temple with elaborate architecture that mix modern techniques with traditional styles. It is amongst the largest Chinese temples in South East Asia.
