KUALA LUMPUR BY NIGHT

TICKET: Discover the vast array of culture on offer as you explore the heart of the capital, that will take you to the colourful Sri Maha Mariamman Temple and the bustling China Town before stopping for sumptuous Malay cuisine at a top restaurant that features a colourful cultural performance.

Highlights

- Admire the colourful city as it sparkles against the night sky
- Grab yourself a bargain as you explore the stalls in China Town
- Treat your senses with a delicious dinner and a traditional show

There is no better time to explore Malaysia's captivating capital than just after sunset. The atmosphere turns electric as the city lights and skyscrapers shine through the dusk sky to demonstrate exactly why Kuala Lumpur has become known as "The Garden City of Lights".

After being picked up from your hotel, enjoy a leisurely drive through the beautifully landscaped streets, where you will experience the energy of Kuala Lumpur as day fades into night and the city lights up. Marvel at the incredibly intricate Sri Maha Mariamman Temple, the oldest and richest temple in the city featuring an impressive entrance carved with 228 Hindu deities. The interior is just as spectacular with richly decorated ceilings, numerous shrines and a silver chariot.

Head around the corner to Kuala Lumpur's famous Chinatown, an area that never sleeps where trading and bartering is a way of life. Soak up the sights, sounds and smells and go in search for a bargain at the many shops and stalls selling almost everything you could possibly imagine.

Round off the night with dinner at a top local eatery. Sample a delicious variety of traditional Malay cuisine whilst soaking up Kuala Lumpur's culture as local performers put on a show to entertain you before being dropped off back at your hotel.
